Life Science – Course Description Scavenger Hunt Name Date Period Directions: Please answer the following questions using the course description. The point of this hunt is to find out more about the class, how you will be graded, and what is expected of you as a student in Life Science. Not all the answers will be found on the course description – some you will just have to think about. This will be your first classwork grade – so take your time and do it well. 1. How will you set up your binder for Life Science? 2. Name five ways you can come to class everyday prepared? (Do not repeat similar items/ideas) 1. 2. 3. 4. 5. 3. Which two units do you look forward to the most in Life Science and why? 1. 2. 4. What is the best way to contact Mr. Bowles outside of class time? 5. Look closely at the grading procedure. Name two ways to increase your chance at success in science if you are not a good test taker and explain why. 6. What is the highest grade you can receive on a homework assignment if you turn it in late? What letter grade does that give you? (divide the first number by 3, then multiply by 100)

7. What should be the first thing you do when you come in to class after being absent?

AFTER MR. BOWLES CHECKS THIS, KEEP THIS IN THE FRONT OF YOUR
16. What letter grade are you working towards for term 1 in science?
15. Take a couple minutes to think about how you can make sure you do well in science this year, and record those thoughts below. Try to think of at least three ideas.
 3. 14. You have a number of ways to reach your potential in science class. Which of the criteria do yo think will come more easily to you? Which will be more difficult? Easier More Difficult
2.
1.
13. Name three reasons why it will be important to keep your three-ring binder organized in science
12. Where do you turn in any work you owe to Mr. Bowles?
11. How will you be graded for the Question of the Day (QOD)?
10. What does "doing your classwork well" look like in science? Why is it worth taking your time and doing your classwork well (be specific)?
9. If you think you forgot to hand in an assignment, what should you do?
6. If you are absent, now long at you have to form in notherwork before it is considered late?

BINDER AS A REMINDER FOR THE REST OF THE YEAR